

The number of people in the U.S. who die each year from alcohol-related injuries could fill up the Humphrey Coliseum three times.

Getting caught using a fake ID can cost you a $500 fine and up to six months in jail.

If you drink and drive you run the risk of taking someone else's life and being charged with manslaughter.

Alcohol is partially to blame in 95% of all falls off of roofs on college campuses.

